ACCREDITED WITH GRADE A++ NAAC

Notice

It has been observed that some students from the Master`s in Tourism and Travel Management (MTTM) first semester batch 2026 are not attending the classes regularly. The absence of these students from regular classes significantly impacts their academic progress and participation in class activities.

All such students are informed through this notice that according to the University Rules and Regulations, regular attendance is mandatory. So they must attend all upcoming classes and maintain the required 75% attendance percentage to be eligible for end semester examination.
